Victorian government schools received $6.142 billion from the Victorian and Australian governments in 2007-08, non-government schools got $1.832 billion.

Victorian government schools received total government funding of $11,442 for each student but non-government schools got $6,090 a student.*

“We send our children to the Independent school we have chosen because it meets our family’s needs.”

“And by paying our share we are saving the government money.”

Tell your state and federal Members of Parliament that non-government schools use taxpayers’ dollars efficiently.
